WEEK 13 – INDIVIDUAL REFLECTION

As the QA/Tester of our group project, my main responsibility was to check the quality and functionality of our system. During Week 12 and Week 13, I contributed by helping in the preparation and completion of our paperworks and by assisting in the development and improvement of our system. I carefully checked if the system functions were working properly and helped identify errors or problems that needed to be fixed. I also gave suggestions to improve the performance and user experience of the system.

Aside from testing, I actively participated in discussions and coordinated with my group members to make sure that our tasks were completed on time. I observed that our team showed cooperation, teamwork, and responsibility throughout the project. Each member did their assigned tasks and tried their best to contribute to the success of the project. There were some challenges and minor misunderstandings during the process, but we managed to solve them through proper communication and teamwork.

Overall, being the QA/Tester helped me improve my critical thinking, attention to detail, and communication skills. This experience also taught me the importance of collaboration and teamwork in completing a successful project.
